

Community Service

We appreciate our good fortune and success. We don't consider our repaying this by with involvement in community service and charitable activities as an obligation, but rather a privilege made possible by our loyal clients for which we are grateful.

In addition to the charities indicated we have donated time, vehicles, staff, material and other aid as we could during such stressful times as 911 and its continuing aftermath as well as Hurricane Katrina.

Listed below are several of the charities with which we have become very actively involved.
